FulfillNet certified as Women Business Enterprise

FulfillNet Inc., Ashwaubenon, has received the Women Business Enterprise certification by the National Women Business Owners Corporation (NWBOC). The certification verifies that FulfillNet is owned and controlled by a woman. The Green Bay based company provides custom fulfillment and direct marketing services around the United States.

“FulfillNet sought out this certification because we’re proud of the business we’ve grown to become,” said Kate Burgess, FulfillNet president. “It’s our hope that this certification will give us even more credibility throughout Wisconsin and the nation as we look to continue to grow.”

The WBE certification allows contractors and vendors to accurately identify and utilize businesses that are woman-owned.
