

FulfillNet, Inc. Company Profile

FulfillNet, Inc., an innovative and fast-growing marketing services company, is a leader in direct mail, fulfillment and contact management services with national and local clients such as Under Armour, Nautica, Shopko, the Green Bay Packers and the YMCA. FulfillNet excels in the use of custom software and database systems to earn and perpetuate its reputation for market leadership. We deliver innovative customer-focused solutions to support any market or business model.

FulfillNet promotes a team oriented, energetic workplace where having fun and achieving goals go hand-in-hand and is seeking a part time IT Support/Database Analyst. This position will initially average approximately 20 hours/week with potential growth opportunity for the right candidate.

The IT Support/Database Analyst Support position offers the following:

- Opportunity to develop role in a progressive, growing company
- Unique opportunity to learn and be involved in a company that emphasizes and utilizes technology as a tool to better service our employees and clients.
- Job advancement and enrichment opportunities

IT Support/Database Analyst Support Overview

Requirements include:

- Strong cognitive thinking abilities
- Ability to analyze information and solve abstract problems
- Experience with Microsoft Office software (Word, Excel, Outlook, PowerPoint and Access)
- Ability to resolve various hardware, software and network issues as they arise
- Excellent written and oral communications skills
- Associates Degree or completing current coursework toward Bachelor degree

Proficiency in a minimum of two of the following is beneficial:

- Ability to program in SQL
- Familiarity with SQL Server 2005 or 2008
- Knowledge of Microsoft SharePoint
- Knowledge of CRM or ERP systems
- A+ Certification
- Experience with Windows Server 2000, 2003 or 2008
- Programming experience in HTML, ASP.Net, VBA, XML, Java or Flash
- Familiarity with SSRS
- Experience with database marketing or software support
- Graphic Design experience